THE CONGRESSMEN. CLEVELAND, Nov. 10 .- A telegram from Bellaire this morning states that Col. Poorman, the Republican candidate for Congress in the Sixteenth District, concedes the tion of J. A. Pearson by a plurality of 200. In the Ninth, or Toledo District, the result is still in doubt, the Democrats claiming the election of Byron Ritchie by four votes and the Republicans maintaining that they have elected ex-Gov. Ashley by six plurality. The official count will be necessary to decide the contest. It is now settled that the Democrats have elected M. D. Harter in the Fourteenth District, and Dr. Geo. P. Rirt in McKinley's old district, the Eighteenth. Aside from the Toledo District, which is still in doubt, each party is now sure of ten Congressmen from this state. A Republican gerrymander last winter was supposed to give the Democrats but six members of the Lower House. The Democrats who have been elected in what were counted as Republican districts are M. D. Johnson of the Twenty-first District, which was counted upon as Republican by 1,600 majority. In the Ninth District, which is claimed by both sides, the Republicans were supposed to have a normal plurality of at least 1,700. Chairman Earley of the Democratic State Committee was in Cleveland this morning. He claimed the State for the Democrats by 1,200 plurality.

St. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 10 .- Partial returns from fifty-five out of the eighty counties in Minnesota and conservative estimates on the remainder taking all information obtainable from all sources up to noon to-day shows

The Democratic committee claim election but the Republican Committee claims the election of the whole nine electors. For Governor the figures given in these dispatches late Tuesday night of 10,000 plurality for Nelson (Rep.) seem as near the truth as it is now possible to give. Nelson's plurality will be under rather than over that figure. Of the seven Congressmen the Republicans claim five and concede two; the Democrats claim three and believe another is still in doubt. It now seems probable that Tawney (Rep.) is elected in the first; haccleary (Ren.) in the second; Omball (Dem.) in the still in the first; haccleary (Ren.) in the first (Rep.) in the fourth; Fletcher (Rep.) in the flurth; Fletcher (Rep.) in the seventh, although the first and sixth districts will be very close. before the car had proceeded half a dozen blocks further, it was met by another large crowd of strikers and sympathizers at the corner of High and Main. Here one of the strikers mounted a heavily loaded coal wagon on the track. He was immediately placed under arrest and hurried away in a patrol wagon. The police succeeded in running the car to the Court-house, three blocks further, where it was turned and started back to the barns. Little interference was shown on the return trip. No attempts have as yet been made to run cars over any of the other lines.

The strikers have been promised the support of every other union in the city, and this morning President Mahon of the Street Railway Employes' Union is calling on the presidents of the other unions, requesting that they come out. Public sympathy seems to be with the strikers and serious trouble is expected before the day is over.

FOUR FERSONS CREMATED IN THE BURNING WRECK.

A Number of Passengers Seriously Injured-Unavailing Cries for Help Fron the Doomed Victims-A Babe Left to Perish in a Tenement House Fire-Herote Work of a Policeman-Casual OTTUMWA, Io., Nov. 10 .- A fearful catastro phe occurred on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road last night at Highland Center, a small station north of this city. A fast ght train dashed into the caboose of a lo cal freight train standing on the track, tele scoping the caboose and cars. The caboose caught fire and the scene was heartrending. Four people were burned alive and a number of others had narrow escapes. The caboose was split in two by a car of grain, wedging in four people on the right side. The most pitiful case was Miss Lizzle Butler of this city, who got her head out of a window and pleaded with those about to save her, but her body was pintoned by a freight enr, and it was impossible to extricate her. Mrs. Jones also of this city tried to escape through a window, but she was an unusually large woman, and could not succeed. The other victims were an unknown woman and an unknown man. The latter is thought to be a butcher at Oskaloosa. The injured are Mrs. Clyde Millisack and Mrs. Pickett of this city and Miss Lizzie Corey of Sigourney. They are badly burned, but not fatally. A curious incident was that one of the passengers was disguised and in the crash the disguise came off, revealing a noted crook. He quickly disappeared in the excitement. CASUALTIES.

A BABE LEFT TO BURN IN A TENEMENT HOUSE FIRE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.-Joseph Bulmer and his wife, who live on the third floor of the tenement, No. 160 Orchard street, went out early last evening, leaving their 6-months early last evening, leaving their 6-monthsold boy with Mrs. Bulmer's mother, Mrs. Miller, who makes her home with them. When the parents next saw their baby it lay on a cot in the hospital fatally burned. Mrs. Miller, who is an old lady, fell asleep after they left her with the baby, and was awakened by the shouts of the tenants as they rushed through the halls. Smoke filled the room. Confused and terrified the woman forgot the child, and, rushing from the rooms, she joined the panic-stricken crowd. In the street Mrs.
Miller thought of the child and told a policeman that the little one had been left in the third story. The policeman hurried up to the room, where he found the baby surrounded by flames and fatally burned.

Disease Forced Wm. Winter to End His Existense.

HE SUFFERED FROM A VIRULENT AND INCURABLE CANCER.

The Well-Known Saloon Keeper Commits Suicice This Morning by Shooting Himself Through the Temple -Tracheotomy Was Performed on Him Yesterday - Sketch of Mr. Winter's Career.

At 8:15 o'clock this morning Wm. Winter, the well-known liquor merchant and proprietor of the Woodbine saloon, took his own ife in his ped-room at his residence, 3032 Bell avenue.

Mr. Winter had been suffering from a virulent cancer of the throat, and knowing that relief was impossible, in a fit of despondency he put an end to his trouble by blowing out his brains. For the past nine months Mr. Winter has been unable to attend to business on account of his throat trouble. He had the best medical attendance that his wealth could command. His affection was similar to that which carried off Gen. Grant. Yesterday the cancer was choking and breath ing was almost impossible. A surgeon was called in and inserted a sliver tube in the called in and inserted a sliver tube in the throat. Another physician sat up all night with him, and from the tone of Mr. Winter's conversation it was evident that he was in a very despondent mood. He had been told by his physicians that there was no hope for him. The physician who remained in his room left him this morning to get a stomach tube. When he came back the patient was dead.

THE INQUEST.

Coroner Irwin was notified of the suicide very soon after it occurred and at the request of the family went to the house at once and held the inquest. Mrs. Elizabeth Winters was examined and said her husband was 52 years of age, was born in Germany and had lived in St. Louis twenty-seven years. He was a wholesale liquor dealer and kept a saloon at 519 Chestnut street. About 8.15 o'clock this morning she was in a rear room fixing a bandage for her husband, when she heard a shot, and running into the front room she found her husband lying across a chair. There was a builet hole in his temple and blood was runing, from the hole. She picked him up and carried him to the bed and then sent for a doctor. She said he had been troubled with throat disease for nine months and suffered intense pain at times. Trachectomy was performed on his throat last night by doctors and he suffered dreadfully. He neuer said he intened to kill himself Mrs. Winter's said and she thinks he must have been temporarly insane when he shot himself Mrs. Elizabeth Schureman, a neighbor and a friend of the family, also testified. She said she heard Mrs. Winters scream and ran into the house to see what the matter was. She found Mrs. Winters trying to lift the body of her husband onto the bed and helped her. Blood was ozing from a wound in the temple and a pistol with one chamber empty was found on the floor.

Dr. Kingsbury said that he and three chara physicians were called to the house ple and a pistol with one champer empty ple and a pistol with one champer empty found on the floor.

Dr. Kingsbury said that he and three other physicians were called to the house last evening to see if they could do anything for Mr. Winter, who was suffering with cancer of the throat. They agreed that tracheotomy was the only operation that could save him and it was performed. The witness remained and this morning witness remained and this morning could save him and it was performed. The witness remained and this morning left the house to get a stomach tube. When he returned Winters was dead.

A verdict of suicide was rendered.

Mr. Winters leaves a wife and six children, most of them grown. The family were in very comfortable circumstances.

Mr. Winters was one of the most prominent liquor dealers in the city. He came to this city from New York back in the '60s. He first went to work for Bob Pate and shortly after went over to J. T. McCullough, who kept the bar in the old Laclede Hotel on Fifth street. He worked here from 1868 to 1870. Then he set up for himself on the site where the 'Woodbine' stands to-day after twenty-two years of prosperity.

Repub-Cleveland will give Mr. Croker everything, the Democratic party of this city and promises have been made.
The facts are that Tammany will have nearly everything, but not quite all. Mr Croker, Mr. Gilroy, Mr. Martin and the two or three others privy to the secrets of the Tammany policy have observed a silence so complete on this question from the very be ginning of the campaign, that not one authentic rumor found its way into general circulation. Success has relaxed this secrecy and the strong reason for its observation ends with the campaign.

It was learned yesterday that some sort of general understanding, not specific in detail, was reached between Mr. Whitney, Mr. Cleveland's representative in the matter, and Mr. Croker. whereby Tammany was promised "fair treat ment. A large share of all Federal local patronage is Tammany's definition of "Fed eral government," and although Mr. Cleveland has not said so, there is no reason to suppose that it is not his definition also. The agreement provides, it is said, that the Collector of the Port shall come from the coun. ty, but that the Postmaster shall be a man agreeable to both Tammany and independent Democrats of the city. The United States Marshal, the Collectors of Internal Revenue, the naval offi-cer and other smaller offices shall be Tam-many's. The Assistant United States Treas-urer was not discussed particularly by Tammany, but that was allotted to Mr. An equally interesting question is "What will be Mr. Cleveland's attitude with referwill be Mr. Cleveland's attitude with reference to 'To the victors' belong the spoils?''.
One of Tammany's arguments against Mr. Cleveland at Chicago was the fact that he kept Democrats out of office. One of the favorite slogans was: "Remember partisan Postmaster Pearson."

A member of the Democratic National Committee who is most intimate with Mr. Cleveland said yesterday that he had reason to believe that Mr. Cleveland's ideas as to the treatment and rewards which good Demo-believe that Mr. Cleveland's ideas as to the treatment and rewards which good Democrats should receive had materially changed. "I mean by that," said he, "that there will be no more sentimental foolishness about keeping Republicans in office. Their places will be wanted for Democrats after March 4 and Democrats will get the places. Cleveland is a mugwump no longer and he will not interfere to keep workers of the enemy in soft berths."

GEN. SICKLES.

HIS ELIGIBILITY AGAIN UNDER DISCUSSION. WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 10 .- The election to Congress from the Fifth District of New York of Gen. F. Sickles has revived the question as to the right of an officer on the re-tired list of the army to a seat in Congress in view of the constitutional provision that "no view of the constitutional provision that "no person holding any office under the United States shall be a member of either House of Congress during his continuance of office." When this question first arose on the nomination of Gen. Sickles, it was unofficially presented for an expression of opinion to the Attorney-General, the law officers of the army and the acting officers of the Treas ury, but each and all of them declined to commit himself further than, to say that it was a question for the House of Representatives alone under its constitutional authority to determine the qualification of its own members. The only question involved is whether as retired army officer holds an office within the maning of the constitution. The consensus of opinion among legal officials on this point is in the affirmative. There is not even a probability, however, that any official executive branch of the government will attempt to interfere in any way with the scating of Gen. Sickles. Therefore, unless the House itself shall make objection, he will be allowed to discharge his duties as a member of the national Legislature without the necessity of relinquishing his standing and emoluments as a retired army officer.

A Wheelbarrow Wager.

Wm. E. Wrisberg, a clerk for the Central oan Co., paid a ludicrous election bet yesterday afternoon. Wrisberg, who is a Republican, agreed with a Democratic friend, J. J. About 2:30 o'clock Wrisberg ornamented by his friend with Democratic emblems of vic-tory pushed the latter with a big tin horn down Olive to Fourth and thence to Pine street followed by a long procession of en-thusiastic Democrats.

Editor Jones' Gross Insult to Missouri's Governor.

He Refers to the Chief Executive as " a Politician."

The "Republic" Denounced on Every Side to the Chief Executive of the Missouri Commonwealth-Some Strong Expressions-Bell Draws a Knife on Barnett-Indignation at Fever Heat.

Indignation ran high on 'Change to-day over the allusion in this morning's Republic to the addresses made by Gov. Francis yesterday at Third and Pine streets to the proion of merchants who were celebrating the Democratic victory.

Had the editor shown himself on the floor about noon it is safe to say from the characof several speeches made here and there about the hall, that he would have been

"The idea," said Mr. Barnett, "of that wolf, after parading himself in the columns of his sheet for a half a page to state that the mob which blocked the strests at the corner of the Exchange was harangued by a politician. Who is he, I would like to know, who can allude to the Chief Executive officer. can allude to the Chief Executive officer State as a mere politician? matter what his personal differences were, we were a delegation of respectable Democratic merchants and brokers who went over there to get the Gov ernor of this State to make us a short address, and that lying bound alludes to us as mob and the Governor as a politician. It is a - outrage, that's what I call it, and you'll find that my opinion is indorsed by every gentleman present."

R. W. Golson and Ben Barnes, who were standing near, gave assent to Barnett's re-marks and characterized the Republic's sneering allusion as an insult to the Demo-crats and the State at large.

GOV. FRANCIS SEEN.

GOV. FRANCIS WAS ON 'Change, and when seen said: "Of course, this is a matter on which I cannot well express myself publicly. I saw the allusion in the Republic, but paid no attention to it. I was on 'Change yesterday and when aboat to leave was told to wait, as there would be a band around soon and the boys were going to parade. I, however, went over to my office, and about 1:30 the procession came along and, after a serenade, a committee came up and forced me on to the steps of the American Exchange Bank. There were cries repeatedly for a speech, and at last I made a few remarks. That is all there was to it, and I certainly had no idea that it was to occur five minutes before. Among the gentlemen who were around GOV. Francis when he made his little address yesterday were Web M. Samuel, John D. Winn, R. W. Golson, W. H. Barrett, Chas. F. Joy, J. P. Carr, Pierre Chouteau, Ed Wickham, W. B. Archer, Wm. M. Poise and others. Several of these gentlemen were discussing the matter to small groups on the floor to-day and each one was forcibly expressing his opinion of the policy of the editor of an alleged Democratic paper referring to the Governor of the State in a local item as "a politician." The insult, they said, was more to the Democrato of the State in a local item as "a politician." The grand wind up of the acrimonious discussion of the article published this morning referring to merchants who paraded yesterday and to Gov. Francis, in what the merchants considered as discospectful terms, was a lively fight. The combatants were no less personages than Wm. H. Barnett, familiarly called "Billy," on 'Change and Nicholas Bell, who was Superintendent of Foreign Mails and also acted as Reading Clerk in the last National Democratic Convention. Both men had numerous friends on the floor, and the bitNg feeling that had been engende piace. The conversation which led to the brief but exciting conflict was very brief. Mr. Barnett approached Mr. Bell near the center of the floor during a lull in the commercial proceedings of the day and said: "What do you think of that — scurrilous article that was published this morning by the Republic about Gov. Francis?"

"Oh, I didn't think much about that at all. It doesn't make much difference I suppose."

"Then you think that it is all right for a newspaper to call representative merchants and business men a mob and talk about them as if they were a lot of hoodlums?"

The reply was a careless one, expressing Mr. Bell's indifference as to the entire subject, and this so angered Barnett that he excitedly denounced the article and warmed up by saying that Bell was nothing but "a weak-kneed Democrat anyway."

This unexpected onslaught on Bell roused the ire of the ex-reading clerk, and in the stentorian voice which had risen above the din of a national convention, he roared: "You are a liar and I'll smash your face if you dare speak to me in that way."

Barnett did not wait for him to carry his threat into execution. In a twinkling he shot out his right hand, catching Bell on the left side of the head just about the ear, and followed it up with a left-hander on the chest. There was no time for any more execution. Floor Committeeman Archer selzed Barnett and whirled him away from his new glaring antagonist, and a dozen merchants crowded in and pushed Mr. Bell back. The latter had pulled out a pocket knife, and, frantically endeavoring to escape from the arms that held him, exclaimed!—— you, I'll cut you into mince meat." Rave as they would the men were kept apart but the wrangie that followed among those about continued for some minutes. Afterward

The company is well pleased with its location and raliroad facilities. Bonuses and free ground were offered at various places, but the company preferred coming here and paying $16 per foot for their territory. The concern will soon occupy the balance of the ground space with stacks, which means that the machinery department will require running to its full capacity. From 100 to 120 men will directly earn here from $1.60 to $4 a day, and this number will be nearly doubled when the other stacks are set. The yearly product will be about 10,000 tons, which, at $140 a ton, gives a gross output of $1,40,000. The concern's officers are experienced in this line. The President is Alexander Euston, who is also President of the American Shot Co. and of the National Linseed Oil Co., while of $t. Louis. At a recent sale of a lead mill was made at $2,000,000, the hopes of East $t. Louisans for the biossoming of their new plant into a great concern are very lofty.

O'Neill Will Count the Vote.

Congressman John J. O'Neill decided to day that he would contest the claim of Chas. F. Joy to election in the Eleventh District by going into the United States Court and asking for a count of the vote in the district. He is confident that this will show that he was elected by the men who voted legally. He claims that the ballot boxes contain illegal votes for Joy, and that this will appear in the count.

The Official Count.

Recorder Carlisie will begin the official count to-morrow. He, Justice McCaffery Justice Mielert will form the boxes, of course, nor does it count the re-jected ballots. All it does is to foot up the returns of the judges and announce the re-sult. WANT OFFICE.

The Candidates for Places Under Gov. Stone.

Gov. Francis Not Worried by Applicants for Indorsement.

DICK DALTON'S BOOM FOR COLLECTOR At 19C OF THE PORT.

St. Louis Democrats Will Rejoice in Mass Meeting Saturday Night-Mr. At 5C Filley Unwilling to Discuss the Election-State Returns at Stone's Headquarters Show Gains-Ed Butler Discharged - What Defeated Mechin-O'Neill'a Contest.

Clerk Wm. Fitzgerald of the Court of Crimal Correction was on his way down town this morning, when he passed E. J. O'Connor nd O. F. Guthrie talking with a Democratic group about the St. Louis appointments of Governor-elect W. J. Stone. Mr. Fitzgerald listened a moment and then started away, saying confidently:

'I'm going to the bank and I'll see Charley Mamtt there, and if you fellows will wait may be able to tell you something when I get back." "You think Maffitt will know, do you?"

said one of the group. There was a dirisive accent in the question, and all the men smiled. Mr. Mamtt dees not know; and if the talk of the Democrats who have been close to Mr. Stone during the campaign and since the election have been the constant com-panions of Maj. Harvey W. Salmon is fairly to be taken as a criterion, the chairman of the State Committee and Gov. Francis himsel?, even, will be among the last to learn of the Governor-elect's fastructions in this respect. relations between Gov. and Chairman Maffitt, on the one hand, and Mr. Stone and Chairman Salmon on the other, have been through the campaign supercially cordial, but at bottom the feeling has been cool on the part of Gov. Francis and his riends, and distrustful on the part of Mr. stone and his confidants.

A BOOM FOR HARVEY SALMON. Aside from the effort Gov. Francis made to ominate Judge James Gibson for Governor there is another reason why he and his riends are not on confidential terms with Mr. Stone and his friends. When the Demo. to the State headquarters yesterday to cheer, for the national and State victory some man n the crowd called out:

"Did I hinder or obstruct anyone from getting in?"
"You certainly hindered the men who wanted to come in, I told you, you had no right to come in before your turn."
"Was there any delay, and was there any unpleasantness, and didn't I tell you that McNamara, one of the judges, had sent for me? Didn't I only walk in and speak to McNamara? Isn't it true that there was no cause of arrest, except that you simply wanted to do something?" "Three cheers for Dave Francis, the next ecretary of the Interior!" They were given with a will. While they were cheering even telegrams were on the way East from St. Louis and other parts of Missouri to William C. Whitney and other friends of President-elect Cleveland, suggesting Mai. Salmon for Secretary of the Interior na case that portfollo was to go West again.

DALTON TO SUCCESE CHURCHILL.

So, around the State headquarters, in the talk among Democrats, it almost goes without saying that Gov. Stone will not keep any friends of Gov. Francis the St. Louis offices. Some time ago, it was pretty well understood that Dick Dalton had been assured that he would have the Coal Oil Inspector's office, now held by National Committeeman John G. Prather. That was when it seemed certain that Stone would be elected and Cleveland's success seemed doubtful. Since the election the friends of Col. Dalton have announced that he does not want the inspectorship, having set his eye on oliger game. He wants to succeed Col. James O. Churchill as Collector of the Port, and his friends say that he has got promise of support from every member inspectorship, having set his eye on bigger game. He wants to succeed Col. James O. Churchill as Collector of the Port, and his friends say that he has got promise of support from every member of the State Committee. Another candidate defeated in the State convention is after a St. Louis federal office, too. This is John M. Wood, who has already been brought out as a candidate for United States District Attorney. Here the talk as to the federal offices stops. There is no Democrat in the Post-office who has been proposed so far as a candidate to succeed Maj. John B. Harlow, and it is thought that the new man will come from outside. Estill McHenry, who was Assistant-Postmaster under Cleveland before, is suggested by some, but he himself has taken no steps to present his claims.

MANSUR AND CRUTCHLET.

Col. C. H. Mansur, who was defeated for Congress in the Chillicothe District after serving two terms, appears in the Laclede Hotel talk as a man who will probably get the Insurance Commissionership, now held by Col. Chris Ellerbe. The office may be moved to Jefferson City soon and then St. Louis could not object to the appointment of a commissioner who did not live in the city. There seems to be little doubt that Col. Elljah Gates of St. Joseph will get the office of Warden of the Penitentiary if he wants it. But there is mubh doubt as to his wishes. If he doesn't care for it, it may be offered to Col. William Crutchley of Norborne. He and Col, Mansur live in the same part of the State, and it may be that Gov. Stone will consider it bad politics to distribute the offices—so. In that event judging by the relative Standing of the two offices so. In that event judging by the re-lative standing of the two men with Mr. Stone and Maj. Salmon, some other man will be made Insurance Com-

some other man will be made Insurance Commissioner.

THE POLICE BOARD.

O. F. Guthrie wants to be Coal Oil Inspector, and there is some talk that he has got a promise of the office, but he denies that, while he acknowledges that he is a candidate for it. Guthrie will have the backing of the ex-Confederate element of the State. Simon L. L. Boogher would like to be Vice-President of the Folice Board but Maj. C. C. Rainwater's indorsement will not be so strong with Gov. Stone as with Gov. Francis, it is stated positively that Samuel Cupples, who, it is understood, was a liberal contributor to Mr. Stone's campaign fund, will be asked to become the Vice-President of the Police Board. Mr. Cupples was in the Police Board under Gov. Crittenden and resigned.

Col. Ed M. Harber of Grundy County is a candidate for the United States Attorneyship of the Western district.

Harris stated that he called at the office of the Van Zandt-Weise Co. this morning but thatthe place was locked up. Prosecuting Attorney Estep told Harris to try and see Van Zandt or some officer of the company to see if the check would not be made good, and if not to return, and he would issue the warrant.

had no right to force his way in that manner, and Butler said: "I knew my business, and I was going in anyhow."

Officer Robert Sloan and George Goodman, a judge of election, swore that the first they knew of the difficulty was hearing the noise made by breaking the window. Butler then was well in the room and he came forward and spoke to McNamara, who, it seems, had sent for him to teil him that the reason voting was so slow was because the men fixing up their tickets in the booth were slow, and that it was not the fault of the judges or clerks. Besides, Mr. Butler said that although he didn't break the class, the owner of the building might get it fixed and have the bill sent to him—Butler.

Mr. Butler made his statement, to the effect that the glass was broken by Leonard, the deputy himself, in his zeal to keep him out of the room. He didn't know leenard and didn't know he was a deputy marshal. He had no intention of delaying or obstructing any voter and did not do so. He went there simply in response to a request from McNamara. Not a loud nor an unkind word was spoken by anyone, but about twenty minutes afterwards Coleman came out to where he was standing on the corner and told him he was under arrest. Butler at first thought he was joking.

Commissioner Crawford had a brief and laughing conference with Assistant-Attorney Johnson, who represented the government, and who also laughed, and then said:

"You may go, Mr. Butler."

"Thank you, sir," said Mr. Butler, as he retired. to Minneapolis that disastrous results would attend the renomination of President Harrison. Results show that his foresight was keen and accurate.
When a Post-Dispartor representative called at the ex-Chairman's office this morning Filley was going over a big stack of dispatches and entering figures on a large sheet of paper. When asked for an opinion on the result, he said:
"I must be excused for a couple of days, Just now I have nothing whatever to say about election results, or the causes that led up to them,"

What Defeated Gus Mechin.

The defeat of Gus. V. R. Mechin was one of the surprises of the election. He made such a very active canvass and had so many influences working in his behaif that his election was considered a certainty if anybody at all succeeded on the city ticket. When the returns came in showing the election of Valliant, Staed, McDonald and Edmunds and the defeat of Mechin, political leaders wondered how it happened. Some ascribed it to Dr. Richardson's popularity in the A. O. U. W. while others charged it up to the circular issued against Mechin the night before the election. This circular was addressed to Catholic voters and made the claim that Mechin was an active member of the A. P. A. These circulars were distributed in Catholic communities and unquestionably did the Democratic candidate much injury. Another thing which injured Mechin was the fight made on him because of his connection with the jury which convicted Peter Eagan of election irregularities five years ago. Mechin was on the jury and acquiesced in the verdict.

Speaking of the results Mr. Mechin said that the circular stating that he was a member of the A. P. A. A. A. A. A. A. A. Ma Gone him harm in many quarters of the city. "It was a member of the A. P. A. A. Mechin said that the circular stating that he was a member of the A. P. A. A. Ma Gone him harm in many quarters of the city. "It was a most contemptible faisehood," he said, "and it flustrates how desperate some people will get to elect or defeat a candidate. I am glad that the country has given us such a magnificent Democratic victory. In my canvass while working for votas I never missed an opportunity to put in a good word for Stone and everybody on the ticket."

Mr. Mechin is making an investigation and expected to learn the origin of the circular issued against him at the last minute.

gave a Democratic majority of 10,000. Stone is not expected to run behind the record of four years ago, but on the contrary the State Committee is confident he will exceed it. The plurality in this event will be 33,000 and very probably as high as 35,000. O'Meara for Lieutenant Governor will not fall below 27,000. He was scratched in the cities and towns through the work of the A. P. A. and other secret organizations in imical to Roman Catholicism.

The People's party failed to muster the Roman Catholicism.

The People's party failed to muster the expected vote. On the basis of the figures received at leadquarters Leonard for Governor will not have in all. Giving stone 33,000 plurality, which is assured, and making allowance for the Prohibition vote, he will have a clear majority over all of his opponents. conservative estimate of the pluralities of the Democratic State ticket would put the figures as follows:

Secretary Sam B. Cook said this morning the expectations of the committee were even more than realized. "When we started out in this canvass we realized that Maj. Warner was a vigorous and effective campaigner, and we worked accordingly. No amount of work was spared to get out a full vote. Returns from the country districts show very clearly that our press and speakers thoroughly shook up the boys in the brush. The vigorous campaign of the opposition had the effect the committee anticipated. We believed it would stir up the country Democracy and it did."

At the Republican State Headquarters Sectetary Hall was the only official to put in an appearance. With the assistance of Assistant Secretary Frank M. Williams he worked the greater part of the day closing up the business of the campaign. This consisted mostly in auditing and paying bill. Secretary Hall had nothing to say further than the State ticket went with the side. Both headquarters with beclosed to-morrow.

When a guard passed under them on the floor 25 feet below, he jumped, but before his body was over the rail he grasped the second bar of the two which form the railing and swung down to the second gallery where he fell without injuring himself. A guard rushed to his side, and, finding he was not hurt, he locked Ulmer up in his cell. It was Ulmer's second attempt or rather his second "bluff" at suicide. He is supposed to be trying to create the impression that he is insane without losing his life in the attempt so that he may make a plea of insanity when brought to trial. In the latter part of August Ulmer made his first "attempt at suicide." He swung from the second gallery and as he while exercising. When a guard passed under

He swung from the second gallery and as he did to-day he caught the corner bar and hung there. Hedgepeth and one of the guards got under him and caught him when he dropped. Ulmer's liberty in the "bull pen" will sexercise will not be allowed to ascend the galleries.
Ulmer is awaiting trial for the murder of Mrs. Annie Eliman, a most cold-blooded deed. He went to his room on Twelfth street, near Cass avenue, one night last July, drunk and mean. He was raising a disturbance when Mrs. Eliman, who seemed to have an influence over him, tried to make him behave. He drew a revolver and deliberately shot her.

The Recorder began paying bills to-day. The poll lists cost $12,000 and the baliots $2,000 more. The pay of extra election dues in the office and of the judges and clerks in the booths will run the total up to $20,000. The government's share of the election expense, the pay of deputy marshals and supervisors, will be about $3,500.

THE MCKINLEY bill must be given credit or excellent work after all. It secured a Democratic President and Congress and a return to just taxation for revenue only.

THE broad, strong tariff plank of Mis souri and Kentucky closed the doorway of the slaughter-house, and it was the other fellows who walked into the open grave.

THE Democratic path is not a rosy one The Republicans have left them an empty Treasury and a mass of extravagant appropriations. Relief can only come slowly.

MR. FRICK is entitled to much of the redit for the Democratic victory. He left nothing undone which would contribute to the disgust for plutocracy and hypocrisy.

WHAT the good Mr. Wanamaker prayed for did not come to pass. It is feared that Mr. Wanamaker has been in politics so long that he has lost his grip on celestial influences.

SENATOR QUAY states the cause of Republican defeat with characteristic brevity; modest to point to himself as one of the reasons of the deficiency.

LET us hope that the misfortunes of the autumn may serve to more closely cemen the recently formed and somewhat touching friendship between Col. Whitelaw Reid and Patrick Egan.

IF Mr. Levi Morton is seen to hug himself because the Republican managers left him off the ticket at Minneapolis, let us not put him in the kodak. Mr. Morton's emotions are perfectly natural.

ROBBER protection and its slush fund have been smashed for all time in this country. Some new form of plutocratic oppression must be invented by those who hunger for a grip on the people's earnings.

THE Republican managers worked hard and faithfully. They did all that unscrupulous and determined political veterans could do. But the handwriting was on the wall and it had to go on the screen.

THE gingham wearers in the Tremont and Suffolk mills of Lowell, Mass., struck on election day because their wages had been cut from 57 to 40 and 45 cents, and other cotton mill employes are expected to go out. The strikers were very patient to wait all through the campaign.

THE Republican campaign was a conspiracy of blunders more fatal than crimes. The folly of Harrison and McKinley in declaring that the tariff was not a tax, that a cheap coat argued a cheap man inside, together with the insane effrontery of the committee in openly engaging in financial transactions with H. C. Frick and other bidders for legislation were quite enough to destroy what little prospects the party had last June. The strongest of parties would have been wrecked with such pilots.

WARNER'S WORK.

Maj. William Warner is a brave and able man who would have made a good Governor, and the fight he made for his party was, under the circumstances, a remarka bly energetic and successful one.

But he ran against the shrewdest tactician and strongest speaker who has appeared as a Democratic nominee for Governor since the war, and Maj. Warner had in the McKinley bill, the force bill and the appropriation bills of the Reed Con-'Lack of votes.'' Mr. Quay was too gress the heaviest load any Republican candidate was ever weighed down with in Missouri since the Democrats have controlled the State.

Moreover, the time was most unpropitious. The drift of public sentiment against the Major's party all over the Union was overwhelming. The task set for him of converting Democratic Missouri to Republicanism in the very year when such moss-backed Republican States as Ohio, Illinois and Wisconsin are rolling up moss-backed Democratic majorities, was simply beyond human power. To bring out an increased Republican vote and run ahead of his ticket under such circumstances is a performance which shows that Maj. Warner may yet be a very hard man to beat in some more favorable

THE LOCAL DEMOCRACY'S DUTY.

The path to Democratic success in the spring elections in this city was blazed by the recent elections and it lies over the political corpses of the boodle and combine bosses who have besmirched the party and betrayed its interests for personal and disreputable purposes.

The local election returns demonstrate that, despite the inefficiency of Demothe Butler influence costs the Democracy cratic leadership and the apathy of the voters caused by bossism, the party won against heavy odds at every point in which its ticket represented a protest against hoodlum methods and men. Its clean candidates, who were pitted against tory telegrams from all parts of the coun- combine candidates won. It lost heavily shell to tax it 400 per cent for button purtry. There are trying times ahead of the on the candidate who represented the poses. Butler-Noonan combine pull.

The campaign and election also proved the treachery of the Noonan Push to the party and its fidelity to the hoodlum comoine. The Push has not only made the party odious by nefarious practices but it knifed its respectable candidates in pursuance of a traitorous and corrupt bargain with Hoodlum Republican bosses. Democrats must be convinced that the Noonan Push and the Butler Pull represent the

The first step, therefore, to Democratic success is the repudiation of both these men and all they represent. Noonan and his disgraceful administration must be repudiated and the Noonan power smashed The Butler influence must be stamped out. When this is done, and not until it is done, the Democratic party can name and elect a strong, clean ticket, bring out the full Democratic vote and thus intrench the party in the power which rightfully belongs to it.

THE CROAKS OF THE WORSTED.

The air is filled with the mournful croaks of the defeated. It is to be expected that those from whom power has een wrested, that those whose special privileges are doomed and those who are deprived of the fat of unearned advantages will not only predict misfortune, but will endeavor to bring it about and to heighten its effect. The threat of disaster is a favorite weapon of monopoly and privilege which strive to impress the people with the belief that the whole social and commercial structure must fall when they are pulled down. It is to be expected, however, that some few may temporarily suffer from the readjustment of the tariff and commercial methods under the Democratic principles of fair taxation and fair trade. Some men and a number of trust monopolies will be hard hit, but it was intended that they should be. They have been imposing upon others and enjoying advantages at the expense of the masses. They must give up their robber privileges and adjust their enterprises to new and just conditions in which profits will not come by taxation and monopoly, but by energy and ability

The disasters which come with such proper readjustment of conditions are the necessary penalties of wrong and are part of the law of progress. They are not fatal. The people have willed to destroy the iniquitous and trade-hampering monopoly system and they only need patience to persistently and fearlessly take whatever immediate consequences may follow the work in order that the desirable end may be thoroughly accomplished. When the debris of progressive reform has been cleared away American manufactures and commerce will be on a sound tion in fair and profitable trade with the world. And the earnings of the people

THE big Republican campaign funds have not taught the negro the sanctity of the ballot. Just before the election one of the most prominent colored clergymen of Delaware issued a circular in which he said: "Negro, look to your own interests. The Republican National your Committee has sent $40,000 each to Kent and Sussex Counties. This is to be divided up. Why should our race not share it? I am a Repub ican and always expect to be, but we should not vote like slaves. Hold out for $25 before you vote, and you will get it. This will enable you to buy warm clothes for yoursell and family during the winter months." Did the black men of Delaware hold out for $25? At this election rate the drain on the Carnegle-Frick fund would have been a flood.

I stated in reply that I would vote the straight Democratic ticket, which I did. BYEON H. STAUFFER.

Cahada and the Union

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch: The four queries submitted by "Canadian-American' in a late issue of the Post-Dis PATCH are apparently beyond solution or are an uninteresting subject to the average reader. Yet, the Dominion-and particularly the Quebec Government-has been wrestling with ome of these questions for years. At the risk of being tedious I would reply to Canadian-American : 1. I believe that Canadians, as well as En. ropeans and Americans, inherit a love for adventure by travel and change of scene in addition to the desire to improve one's conaddition to the desire to improve one's condition in life. In the last-named people it is particularly exemplified by their migrating to other states as well as to Canada. Many Canadians are invited to come to the United States by railroad and other corporation as well as by merchants and contractors.

2. I believe that the want of universal franchise, the separate public schools, the dead languages, tha dual governments (for the clergy are a power with the State), the treaty of Paris, which saddled tithes upon the people, the numerous religious schools the people, the numerous religious schools and other institutions, severally and collectively contribute to prevent a homogeneous people and to create a feeling of hatred of one another, where freedom and a truly Republican form of government in theory, should have engendered national pride and a spirit of brotherly love, resulting in thousands leaving home in disgust.

3, To me, it appears as it Canada has made great material progress, such as will compare favorably with some of the Eastern States and other portions of the Union. But comparisons are odious. Her exports and imports are an interesting study just now. Her canals, scholars, McGill College and mercantile marine, are world known.

4. American capital seeks investment in that country as it does for the same reason in South America and other fields. The Canadian banks are lending money to us by millions of dollars just now, to help along commerce and public enterprise. I might as well ask how there are British, Dutch and French syndicates in this country. Only a short time ago, the French controlled all the copper interests in these United States. But for the McKinley bill and the protectionists of Canada we would see much more interchange of commodities and money between the United States and our neighbors.

But ITISH-AMERICAN. the United States and ou BRITISH-AMERICAN.

A Car Line Complaint. To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

In the name of common humanity please send one of your staff over the Chouteau avenue line to take notes that you may be able o suggest a means of landing passengers from the cars to the sidewalk. How men are from the cars to the sidewalk. How men are to get to the voting poils in decent shape is as great a mystery as what has become of the contractor. Also, at the same time, please note the difference between the electric cars on Chouteau avenue and Lindeli avenue. We pay the same fare—5 cents—but Oh, what a difference! The one is comfortable and warm in winter; the other (Chouteau avenue) is wet and cold. We pay for the ride and fire and decent cars; When we don't get our money's worth, the same as the West Enders, we are robbed. That is the way we working voters feel.

THE PEOPLE'S PARTY TO RISE FROM

History Will Repeat the Events Following the Whig Overthrow in 1856-60-A "Balance of Power" Knocked Out by a Kevolution-Interesting Raview From a Fopulist Standpoint.

The national campaign headquarters of the People's party, which have now but three days more of life at the Hotel Richelleu, bore aiready the stamp of approaching dissolu-tion, when a Post-Dispatch re-porter viewed that scene of former Populist activity this morning. National Chairman Herman E. Taubeneck sat at the work table idly pulling his long mustache, his eyes staring into vacancy, with a in their depths. A very young Populist sat at an extreme window of the apartment, silent. No one else was present. Some tele grams, opened, were on the table in front of Mr. Taubeneck. One of them read as fol-

TATHENECK'S DISAPPOINTMENT.
But these things have little comfort to National Chairman Taulieneek. The People's party was farther from the "balance of power" in the Electoral College, on which they had so confidently counted, than ever. The Democrats had swept the earth. Mr. Taubeneck let'fall some pregnant reflections on the "landsilde." from a Populist point of view. A few of them are given below. He said:

"With the States we have carried, the People's party would to-day have the balance of power but for one thing. We did not count on the Republican party going all to pieces. Who would have dreamed that they would lose Illinois, Wisconsin and Indiana?

"We would have carried some of the Southern States but for Republican cunning. The Republicans voted with the Democrats in States where we were strong, so as to make Western and Northwestern Populists believe the South was solidly Democratic, despite its Populist pledges.

the south was solidly Democratic, despite its Populist pledges.

"The result in Illinois is not a continuation of the Democratic tidal wave started by Gen. Palmer's election to the United States Senate. It is the result of unrest and dissatisfaction among agricultural and laboring classes. The people voted for a change, not for a principle.

"If the Populists have not carried Nebraska, they have at least made it valueless to the Republican party for the future. It can't be counted on in the Republican column. "The Democrats cannot carry out their in the Democrats cannot carry out their pledges of tax reduction, unless they adopt the People's party policy and re-establish an income tax. "The Republican farty is practically dead, repudiated by the whole country. It cannot reorganize under its own name without shouldering responsibility for all the shortcomings that have just secured its condemnation. From the ruins of the Republican party in 1891 the People's party will arise to power, as the Republicans succeeded the Whigs in 1886 and 1850.

"We are more hopeful than ever. Our national committee will probably meet in Memphis, Tenn., next week, as the Supreme Council of the Farmers' Alliance meets there on the 18th inst., and at least four of the nine members of our national committee will have to attend anyway. COTTON CROP.

November Returns to the Department of WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 10 .- The yield of lint is generally short in proportion to the weight of seed cotton, and the staple is short, though generally clean and of good color. The November returns to the Department of Agriculture indicate a very light with short staples, gathered crop, with short staples, gathered generally in good condition. Local estimates range from two-fifths to four-fifths of a full crop. Many make it the worst crop since 1860. In a few favorable locationa a fair crop is promised. On the Atlantic Coast the loss is attributed to alternating heavy rains and drought. A cold and wet spring was followed by long-continued dry weather, producing large weed and deficient fruitage. Picking in this region is well advanced and the crop partly marketed. White killing frosts on the 27th and 28th uit, has reduced the top crop. There is great unevenness in the growth. One correspondent in Alabama says some fields will require twenty acres to make a bale, respondent in Alabama says some fields will require twenty acres to make a bale, while some of those in Mississippi are estimated at a bale per acre. In the Mississippi Valley there is also a good growth of stalk and small development of boils. The injurious factors are a cold and wet spring and boil worms. The early rains forced cotton into slender joints with poor boils. The weather is favorable for gathering, but unfavorable for maturing.

Children After the $1,000 in Prizes to Be Given.

NUMEROUS INQUIRIES RECEIVED AS TO THE COMPETITION.

There Will Be 102 Different Donations so That a Great Many Children Will Share the Benefits of the Contest-The Rules Governing the Affair-The Largest Prize $100 in Gold and the Smallest $5 in Gold,

The work of clipping Christmas coupons es merrily on and each day brings new con testants to the front.

There is a charm about everything mysteri ous and a pleasure in trying to unravel uncertainties Every competitor for a prize in the Post-

Disparch coupon contest is surrounded with uncertainties. He does know how many competitors he has, and he has not the remot st idea how many coupons have been collected by his rivals in the contest. No one is going to reveal the number of coupons he or she has stored away and as the Post-Disparch has no information whatever on the subject to pu blish the final result s completely wrapped in mystery.

There is one thing about the contest, how ever, that is absolutely certain, and that is that the best coupon collector, or club of col-lectors, is going to receive $100 in gold on Christmas eve from the Post-Dispatch. It is emally certain that the 101 collectors who stand next highest on the list are going to be made happy for their energetic work and industry by having $900 divided among them. so amidst the uncertainties of the contest look ahead to the certainties of the result and remember that two coupons can be easily collected now where there will be a struggle to obtain one towards the end of the race. The nditions are as follows:

NOT TOO YOUNG.

LITTLE ROCK, ATR., NOV. 4.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

I am a little boy 5 years old. Am I too young to work for some of the Xmas money? I hope I am not, but if I am let me knew the name of some good little boy and I will send him my coupons. I like boys best anyway. Your little friend, HARHIE BRANDON.

[You are not too young, children of all age being allowed to compete.] WANTS EDNA CARTER'S ADDRESS LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 4, 1892.

LITTLE KOCK, AFK., NOV. 9, 1892. To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

I am adaily subscriber to the POST-DISPATCH and a mother to boy and girls long since grown up.

I feel an interest in Miss Edna Carter et your city, and, through your valuable paper, I hope to get her address, as I mean to send her all of my coupens to help her out in the contest. I wish little Edna speedy recovery and will, work for her uncessingly during her lilness.

To the Editor of the Post-Disputch:

I will write you a few lines to tell you I am working for a prize from you, too. The neighbors here will not give you any coupons. I will be astisfied with a few dollars. I promised to buy my mamma, paps, three brothers and a little sister Xmas presents if I win a prize. Lexa Scharf.

DISTRIBUTING THE PRIZES. ST. Louis, Mo., Nov. 3. To the Editor of the Post- Dispatch: I am saving up your coupons every day I get a great many each day. Do you think I will have a show? How are the prizes to be awarded? Will the parties who win have to call at the office or will the money be sent to their homes?

J. E. T. [There is no way of telling who will win the prizes. In due time the arrangements for distributing the awards will be published.]

IN CASE OF A TIE. St. Louis, Nov. 6, 1892.
To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch: I have been saving the coupons ever since they started, and would like to know if there should be a tie who would receive the prize. Yours truly,

CHARLES NAX. [Should a tie occur for any prize the money will be divided.]

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch: I am a little girlll years of sge, and I think it is no use for me to save the coupons of the contest, but if you think it is please let me know. We only keep one paper a day and I can get no more coupons. Yours truly,

Your struly,

2224 Bremen avenue.

[You will probably succeed in getting other coupons if you try hard enough and may yet win aprize]. ST. LOUIS, Nov. 8.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch: To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

I am a married lady and of course I can't be in the contest, but I know a nice little boy who selis the Post-Dispatch and he is poor. His father used to work for me, and I take the Post-Dispatch every day. I want to know if I can give him the coupons? You say no one connected with the Post-Dispatch can be in the contest. Please answer me through your paper and oblige yours, fruly, P.-D. READER. [If the boy is emyloped regularly in hand-ling the Post-Dispatch he is not eligible.]

AS TO CLUBS.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

I think you have made a very bad plan by allowing children to club together on the coupons. There will be a great many children who are not shie to join a club, and will have a good many in their own collection, and get no encouragement for their work. It is not fair for several to work against one Besides I do not think children over 12 years should win; only from 5 years to 12 years, and every one to work for themselves. It is not too late to make new rules and light hearts.

[It is impossible to prevent clubs being secretly formed, and the only fair way is to allow all to join them if they see fit. It is a mistake, however, to think that the clubs will win all the prizes. A child who is working alone will work much harder as a rule and collect more coupons than if a member of a club. To draw a limit on age is a difficult mater, as fa few days would probably exclude hundreds of children, so that people of all ages are allowed to compete.]

HE CANNOT COMPETE. GREENVILLE, Ili., Nov. 8, 1892. To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch. I want to ask you something about the coupon contest. You must know first that I am Mrs. J. W. Sandifier, mother of your POST-DISPATCH boy here, and I want to know if you would privilege our youngest child, years of age, to take a part in the contest. Rufus, your agent (our eldest son), has no extras during the week and his Sunday extras he usually sells so if our baby undertakes to get a prize it will be by collecting the coupons from Rufus' subscribers. WASHINGTON, Mo., Nov. 6, 1892. WASHINGTON, Mo., Nov. 6, 1892.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

I think this contest is great, and as others have expressed their opinion and asked questions I will take the liberty to do it also. I and a newsboy's brother entered into this contest. There is a boy in our town who is a carrier of the Post-Disparcil, and his brother is collecting coupons and keeping those of the papers which the carrier does not seil. I don't think it is right, for we can't stand any show in that case. Respectivily, G. A. N. B.—This boy's name is W. Arcularius.

AN INFLAMMATORY MANIFESTO ISSUED BY THE REDS.

Paris, Nov. 10 .- The building, in which are the offices of the Carmaux Mining Co., is now guarded by detectives. The police have arrested Victor Rabe, a German furrier, 34 years of age, at 1 o'clock this morning. He arrived in Paris a month ago from Leipsic and occupied a furnished room in a low house on the Place Marbert. He associated with Anarchists Francois and Munier. He is believed to be the man who was seen lotter ing about the building in which the Carmaux company has its offices. Dynamite was found in his possession. His papers and effects were selzed. The Anarchists and effects were selzed. The Anarchists continue to send threatening letters to Beron Relli, President of the Carmaux Co., and to M. Reitz, the special commissary. There are plenty more surprises in store for them."

The French Cabinet refrains from meeting to discuss the explosion lest the public be marmed. This is a lamentable condition, justifying the reproach against the Gov-ernment for being apathetic to the public safety and creating a feeling that it is power-less to cope with the lawless element. A REAL SURPRISE.

DAILY AND SUNDAY, 15 CENTS A WEEK.

What a Former Captain of Police Says About It.

An Astonishing Fact That Ought to Be Known by Everybody.

Cause for Alarm Unless Immediate Action Is Taken.

Alexander Bell is a retired captain of the Portland (Me.) police force.

He has a strange and wonderful story to tell.

Now Mr. Bell is an old GrandArmy man, inde ed. was one of the founders of the famous Bosworth Post, G. A. R., and is widely known and much respected throughout the State of Maine.

We will let him tell his remarkable story in his own way: "I have had two strokes of paralysis, the first about four years ago, the second in January, 1891. My left side was completely paralyzed, face drawn, arm and leg immovable. "On account of my advanced age of 75 years, and this being a second attack, my physician pronounced

"I was finally induced to try Dr. Greene's Nervurs blood and nerve remedy and soon began to improve, the muscles of the face straightened, then my arm began to gain, and I began to walk after having used hree bottles of this semedy.

"My arm I can now raise to my head and have fair use of it, and with a cane have walked as far as two miles and a half.

Mr. Alexander Bell. "From being a helpless paralytic, having to be dressed and cared for by others. I now care for myself, can walk about the city and enjoy fair health. "I would state that after beginning the use of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy I used no other medicine.

"The result surprised and astonished all my friends, and they have urged me to make this statesent as a matter of justice and to encourage others who may be similarly afflicted.

"I will also state that I was a soldier in the late war and served fifteen years on the police force of Portland." Alexander Beil, 14 Lincoln st., Portland, Me. This is indeed a most remarkable cure by a wonderful medicine-a medicine which is, beyond all doubt, the greatest nerve remedy and health restorer ever discovered. The Portland doctors are astounded at its effects in diseases which have baffled their skill. Mr. Bell's restoration should make everybody suffering from paralysis or any nervous disease use Dr. Greene's Norvura blood and nerve remedy

But do not wait until you are actually paralyzed before using this great remedy. It will always pre-vent paralysis, nerveus debility and nervous pros-tration if taken when the first symptoms appear. Take it if you have a weak and tired feeling with weariness of the limbs, numbness, trembling, palni-tation of the heart, prickling sensation in fingers or toes, headaches, duli-feeling head, confused mind, nervousness, sleeplessness, loss of memory. It will overcome indigestion and dyspepsia, regulate the bowels and cure liver and kidney complaints. It is the best blood enricher and invigorator in the world, nent specialist in the country in the treatment of harge personally or by letter.

THE DEACONS.

LEGAL DELAYS AND VEXATIONS MAY PROLONG

THE CASE. Paris, Nov. 10 .- The position of the Deacon case before the First Chamber of the French Court of Appeals is somewhat hazy. The laws have a wide application in this court, where an action on the list for hearing may drag on for many weeks unheard. If Mrs. Deacon really wants her appeal to be heard it will be heard next Wednesday, as the Abeille family possesses large influence and is using it in her behalf. If she desires to gain time, she will be able to delay the trial

The exact whereabouts of the child ablucted by Mrs. Deacon from the Convent of the Lady of Assumption is unknown. There is no doubt the little one is near Paris, as on Saturday, when Mrs. Deacon offered to surronder her to Mr. Deacon, they said that if he would agree to their conditions he should have possession of her in three hours. Mr. Deacon, it will be remembered, refused to consent to any compromise of the case, being determined to divorce his wife.

If the decision of the Court of Appeals is against Mrs. Deacon the proceedings can be further protracted by an application for a hearing by the Court of Cassation. The real explanation of her move in bringing an action for divorce against her husband is that she is the tool of the Abelile family, Members the Lady of Assumption is unknown.

TROUBLE.

HONOLULU, Nov. 2.—The trial of the suit fo libel commenced by United States Minister Stevens against Editor Logan of the Bulletin has not occurred yet, though it is set for Nov. 1. The suit grew out of comments made by correspondents upon the alleged inaction of the United States representative in regard to sending a search party after the missing boats' crew of the wrecked American ship, W. A. Campbell. On Nov. 1 a communication from the Queen was presented to the Legislature announcing that she had appointed the following as members of her cabinet: Premier and Minister of Finance, Hon. W. H. Cornwell, vice Macfarland; Minister of Foreign Affairs, Hon. Joseph Nawahi, vice Parker; Minister of the Legislature of Minister of Children Minister o of the Interior, Charles T. Gulick; Attorney General, Charles I. Gunta, Actional General, Charles Creighton, vice Neumann, Within five minutes after the announcement of the appointments Hon. L. A. Thurston, leader of the opposition, introduced a resolution of want of confidence on the ground that the new Cabinet did not represent a majority in the House. After a debate of two hours and a half the Cabinet was voted out and the [Assembly adjourned until Nov. 7. The new ministers performed the detail work of the offices. No salaries can be paid, however, while the deadlock continues

In consequence of the late fire of the large wholesale clothing houses that recently burned in Milwaukee over a million dollars worth of fine tailor-made clothing and other goods have been saved and removed to the large building, 911 Olive street, formerly Eden Musee building, between Ninth and Tenth, three doors from Pope's Theater, St. Louis,

The entire stock will be sold by a combin

The entire building, No. 911 Olive street, between Ninth and Tenth, formerly Eden Musee, one of the largest in the city, has been eased especially for this great fire insurance sale, which will commence on Thursday, Nov. 17, at 9 a. m. Everything will be sold at retail, 35 per cent less than their actual cost to manufacture. As the stock must be sold in eight days everything will go very rapidly. The appraisers for the insurance companies after carefully examining the stocks of clothing, concluded they were not so badly damaged as claimed by the as-sured manufacturers, and after failing to agree as to their actual loss the insurance companies were forced to take the same and must turn it into money within eight, days, consequently the goods must be sold at once in order to make a final settlement. In the case of Josephine Sticks et al. against the Citizens' kallway 'Co. the jury returned a verdict late yesterday afternoon, in Judge Dillion's court, in favor of the piaintiffs for $2,750. The suit was one for damages for personal injuries sustained from one of the cable cars of defendant running into a buggy and throwing the piaintiffs out and injuring them.

A Big Appeal Bond.

A Big Appeal Bond.

Mr. John J. Mitchell, representing the Chicago & Alton Raliroad, accompanied by its attorney, Mr. Given Campbell, appeared in Judge Dillion's court this morning and presented an appeal bond in the case of the Wiggins Ferry Co. against the Chicago & Alton Raliroad Co. The bond offered was in the sum of $800,000, and the sureties on it were T. B. Blackstone, J. C. MeMillin, John B. Drake, John J. Mitchell and H. W. Phelps.

The Court examined Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Phelps, as to their personal wealth, and took Mr. Mitchell's affidavit as to the wealth of the other three sureties. The statements were satisfactory and the bond approved.

This is the case in which the Wiggins Ferry Co. some time ago obtained a judgment against the Chicago & Alton road for $378, 282,40 for the breach of an old contract, which gives the ferry company the exclusive right to transport the Chicago & Alton's cars across the river from Kast St. Louis to St. Louis. The case has been pending in the courts since December, 1881, and will now go to the Supreme Court of the State.

The defendant company was also to furnish the patterns for making these machines.

was also to turnish the patterns for these machines.

The plaintiff claims a breach of these terms of the contract, and claims $10,000 damages. He also sues for $5,000 damages additional for the loss of a sale of the rights acquired under the agreement to the McDonald Brick Co., who falled to purchase because of the false representations of the defendant regarding the plaintiff's right to the patents.

Switzer was entitled to the possession of a lot on the southeast corner of Garrison grenue and line street and that on June 5, 1889, she was dispossessed of the same by the defendants. The plaintiffs ask for judgment for $1,000 damages and the monthly profits for rent, which is estimated at $10 per month.

Bloody Fight on Election Day in South Carolin.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 10.—Details of the election affray Tuesday at Holland's Store precinct, Anderson county, show that three men were killed and several wounded, all whites. It appears that R. G. Carter, the Republican supervisor, and James W. Earle, a Democrat, became involved in a political quarrel just outside of the house in which the voting was going on. Carter pulled his pistol and fired at Earle, but missed him, and hit Columbus Green, the Democratic mana ger, who came to the door to see what the trouble was. Green was killed instantly, the ball passing through his heart. Earle began firing and both men emptied their guns. Both men went behind the store to reload. Earle ran through the house and into Carter. During the fustlade three by standers were wounded, but not seriously Carter was terribly wounded and died a few hours afterwards. Carter came to Anderson County from Georgia several years ago. He was a desperate character and had killed a from Anderson says Earle died last night.

Miscellaneous Markets. Broom Corn-Firm and finds ready sale. ComThe Government report to-day will give the yield of corn per acre. The Nov. reports year ago estimated the final yield at 26.6 bs, though the final figures licerased it to 27 bs.

Last week's whast shipments from Eastern European, South American and Anstralian ports were 2.480,000 bs, against 2,800,000 bu the week before and 3,250,000 bu for corresponding week last year. The small movement of winter wheat to market continues and now spring wheat receipts are apparently beginning to fall off. To-day's receipts at Duluth and Muneapolis were 235 cars smaller than the preceding flueraday.

Bradstreat's visible supply of wheat increased 0, 162,000 bu cast of the Rockies and 672,000 bu on the Pacific Coast. Corn increased 40,000 bu. Oats decreased 486,000 bu. One year ago the increase in wheat was 3,883,000 bs.

decreased 188,000 bu. One year ago the increase in wheat was 3,883,000 bu.

According to the latest official reports on the Italian wheat harvest, the current and two preceding years compare as follows: in 1892, 123,480,000 bu; in 1894, 123,776,000 bu, and in 1896, 130,000,000 bu foreign wheat, instead of 30,000,000 bu, as estimated at the slose of harvest, when the crop was estimated much below 1885 yas.

Liverpool Corn Trade News, Oct. 26: The wheat markest is without special feature, but not wishout an undercurrent of strength, which would probably develop into something tangible at the first sign of a falling off in the Western receipts. California shippers do not offer and re-seliers of such cargoes hold stiffly. Red American cargoes in first hands are not reely offered, but meet with very little inquiry. La Plata cargoes in all positions are stiffly held, and Russian and Danuoian shippers ask yesterday's full rates.

Speaking of Argentine crops La Nacion save:

Plata cargoes in all positions are stiffly held, and Russian and Danuoian shippers ask yesterday's full rates.

Spaaking of Argentine crops La Nacion says: Unlavorable reports as to the condition of young crops are being received from the interior. The weather continues dry and cold and the need of rain becomes more pronoued from day fe day. As had been foreseen, the locusts have already caused immense dange; the plague has spread itself over nearly all the colonies in the center of Santa Fe and nothing has been done to combastit, at least nothing has branspired respecting remedial measures. The insects are already depositing their eggs, and if prompt and efficient measures are not taken to desiror these latter and the young broods next your we shall have neither wheat, corn nor feed to export.

Milling World: The secret of the change in the Government crop estimate from 495,000,000 bu on Sept 1 to 520,000,000 bu on Oct. 1, probably lies in the thresher retains. Reports from North Dakota, South Dakota and Minnesota foil of places and pring areas the reports are in the man agree the wheat decidedly, but in all the important spring areas the reports are in the man favorable. One farmer in North Dakota writes to us. "First along it looked like 50 bu per acre. Then the hot weather cooked us, and looked like bare ground to the acre. Lastly, the weather strightened up, and my 200 acres have threshed out about 18 bu per acre. Only for the hot spell, I would have 50 bu per acre, eure. "Evidently the Dakotas have not fared so badly, after all.

Primes' report: A very full report received from Central lillinois says that most of the wheat is up and I would have 50 bu per acre, sure." Evidently the Dakotas have not fared so badly, after all.

Primes' report: A very full report received from Central lilinois says that most of the wheat is up and the early sown shows a good stand. Late sown has just fairly started. The rains we have will put it in good shape. Very small per cent of last year's crop remains in farmers' hands. Very little progress has been made with gathering corn and the yield is turning out evry unsatisfactory. We have yest to hear of anyone who claims that he will get a full crop, the majority of corn turning out even below what was expected. Farmers do not seem disposed to sail old corn, preferring to carry over and sell the new corn, providing they do not have room to hold on to it. Northwest Ohio reports 95 per cent of winter wheat an up; lair stand. On the continual Price Current: Wheat erop condition is maintained. Marketing of winter wheat is being further curtailed. Holders more hopeful. Corn handling is moderately interfered with by wet weather, and a reduced quantity moving.

The week's packing in the West was 225,000 hogs, same as last week, and 385,000 during the corresponding week last year.

Col. Hem's Latest Bnollygoster Story.

From the Atlanta Constitution.
Brother Ham told his latest joke on a Third party snollygoster yesterday. Said he:
"The fellow came to Atlanta for the first time, and ushered out upon the leighan block pavement he took in the situation with serious contemplation. Finally he turned to his companion and said: 'I say, Bill, it's a darn god thing they built a city here, for this land is so dad blamed rocky it would never do for farming, would it?'"

Military Hot After the Renegade Apache Chief.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 10.—The military are hot on the trail of "Kid," the notorious Apache renegade, who has created such havoc among other Indians on the White Mountain reservation, Arizona, and settlers in that vicinity by his frequent murders and depredations. The War Department has been advised through Gen. McCook, at Los been advised through Gen. McCook, at Los Angeles, Cal., "that Lieut. Bean had had a skirmish with "Kid's" band on the Chirachua mountains between Turkey and Cave Creeks. He captured all their horses, but had to fortify himself. Lieut. Hornbeck had been sent from Fort Bewle, Ariz, with reinforcements. Lieut. Bean has only afteen men. Gen. McCook further states that all possible means are being taken to capture or destroy this renegade. The War Department and civil authorities sincerely hope that he will be successful. This desperado has led the troops and civil authorities a lively chase during the past year. He is wanted, and wanted badly, for a long string of crimes he has committed during that period.

It was only a few days ago that he again became lonesome in his mountain retreat, and reappeared on the white Mountain Reservation, making another successful raid on the female members of the tribe. After each raid troops and Indian scouts are sent out after him. He knows every foot of the country, and is thus enabled to elude his pursuers. Many efforts have been made to entrap the wily savage. They have all failed. A dispatch was received from Deming this morning from Lieut. Brown stating that his detail of twenty-five from Fort Bowle, who have been in pursuit of the "Kid" and his band of renegades for some weeks, came upon the camp of the Indians in Doubtful Canon, Arlz, about 100 miles to the west of this place, early yesterday morning. The Indians discovered their approach and escaped, leaving their camp utensils behind them. The troops are in hot pursuit and it is expected that ere this the gong has either been captured or many of them killed.

Yesterday, however, many of the judges who came to Belleville to deliver their ballot boxes were unable to tell what the vote had been in their respective precincts. They had understood that the secrecy of the ballot was to be preserved until the official count had been made, and they had made no memoranda of results. The County Clerk found it utterly impossible to make even a semi-official count of the vote cast in the county, and the public will not know how it stands until the official canvass is finished. has created a sensation little short of consternation.

Fr. Brady was seen by a Post-Dispatch reporter to-day in regard to the latest developments in the coadjutorship matter. The following questions were put to him:

"Fr. Brady, it is said that a coadjutor to the Archbishop will be appointed very soon, and it is also said that you are the choice of Archbishop Kenrick, but not of the priests of St. Louis. Is it true that you are opposed by a great majority of the local priests?"

"It is not true," replied the Vicar-General earnestly. "There are two or three priests who are always opposed, not only to me, but to everybody, and it is they who are leading this movement against me. I know who they are. I have the favor of most of the St. Louis priests." Fr. Brady appeared to mean every word he uttered, for as soon as he heard the question he dropped instantly his ordinary cordial demeanor, and his reply was given in a very decided tone. He was next asked:

"Is it true that Archbishop Kenrick has received orders from Rome to choose a coadjutor?"

The Archbishop is generally believed to favor the appointment of Vicar-General Brady, and as the suffragans would not likely oppose his recommendation unless under strong pressure, a large faction of the priests who do not want Fr. Brady for Bishop has taken steps to prevent his selection. They have already formed an organization and they will meet at an early day to choose three names of candidates for the coadjutorship. These they will submit to Rome for a choice. The three candidates who are acceptable to the priests are Bishops Hennessey of Dubuque, Io.; Spalding of Peoria, and Fitzgerald of Little Rock, Ark. Bishop Kane or Wheeling, W. Va., is also regarded with favor. This aggressive, and, it may be, semirebellious policy of the priests of St. Louis has created a sensation little short of consternation.

''Archbishop Kenrick has received no such communication. A bishop who was in Rome said that Cardinal Ledochowsky was about to write, if he had not already written, a letter of greeting to Archbishop Kenrick, in which he asks Archbishop Kenrick, in which he asks Archbishop Kenrick whether Rome can do anything for him." Fr. Brady then relapsed into a conversation about coadjutorship and said: "Of course I would like to see Archbishop Kenrick have an assistant but 1 have given no thought about the appointment of a coadjutor. Rome will not 'order' the Archbishop to select one, but when His Grace feels that he needs some assistance he will call a meeting of his suffragan bishops. The priests of St. Louis will not oppose the choice of the suffragans by any such meeting as has been proposed."

But it is a very significant fact that the German priests of st. Louis, through the society known as the Priester-Verlen, have given up their hopes of a German Archbishop and have agreed with the English-speaking candidates for the coadjutorship. With the clergy of St. Louis united against the Archbishop and his suffragans the declining days of the venerable prelate will be full of trouble.

rs From Bronchial Catarrh and Lung Trouble Almost Invariably Afect of his recent illness, said:

et of his recent lilness, said:

"I have been sick off and on for about six years. I had all the painful and disagreeable symptoms of catarth. I had the most frightful headaches imaginable. I could hardly stand the pain. At times I felt as if there was a LOAD OF DEICKS ON THE TOP OF MY HEAD. I had noises in my ears, and had great troub's with my syes. Often they would become so weak and watery that I could not see, and would have to stop work. I had a bad cough and a sore throat, pains in my chest and left side. My hands and wrists would swell up, and my sufferings were intense.

"My stomach wors in very bad condition. It seemed sore and raw all the time. I could not digest any kind of food. The pain in the stomach after eating amounted to simple agony. Mu stomach would distend with gas, and I would bring up a sour fluid that was as bitter as gail. Unable to cot or digest my food, I became terribly weak, and could hardly attend to my business.

"Hearing of the success of Drs. Coffeland and Thompson in catarrh and stomach troubles, I went to their and placed myself under their care. The result was astonishing. My headaches have disappeared, the noises in my ears have ceased, my eyes are clear and bright. The pains and soreness in my throat, chest and lungs have disappeared, and MY STOMACH is IN PERFECT CONDITION. I can eat anything and everything without distress. I am stronger and better in a housand ways, and I seek. BRITER AND LOOK BRITER (SO MY PEINNDS TELL ME) THAN I HAVE IN THE PAST TEN YEARS. I am glad to testify in behalf of Drs. Lung Trouble Almost Rivariably Attested With Stomach Trouble—The Reason Why.

It will be noticed in these accounts of the successful treatment given to sufferers from bronchial extern or fung trouble, that, in nextly every instance the shortness of breath, the pales in the hungs, the wheeing and ratting sounds, the night sweats, spitting of blood, cough, etc., which mark the presence of this disease, are accompanied by a severe stomach affection.

The cause of this is very easily explained. The catarrhal poison drops from the head into the throat and thence into the stomach. The catarrhal process attacks the sensitive lining of this organ, the membrahe becomes inflamed and sors and constantly irritated. When food is taken into the stomach, that organ being unable to perform its functions, it is not the stomach, that organ being unable to perform its functions, the stomach with all its horrors is experienced by the victim.

Nothing will prove this more clearly than the case of Mr. Horry Vercho, who lives at $207 Biair avenue.

It was a condition of this lease that the papers, were finally recorded it appeared their interest in the first papers, of Mr. Hompson in the meantime. An illustration of the plans was published by the Post-Disparc posed improvement attracted very general attention on account of the ciaborate design, contemplating by far the handsomest building in the city in the very heart of the trade center.

Since the filing of the leases referred to papers negotiations have been pending in behalf of McCormack, Kilgen & Rule to secure the Central Realty Co. slease and for that purpose Mr. Henry Raeder of Chicago. President of the company, and J. H. Haviln of Cincinnait were both in this city last week conferring about the matter. Messrs. Havilin and Hagan held a lease of Popo's Theater, a portion of the Kaufman property. This lease was to fun to November. 1994, and the term of it might have been terminated at any time upon a year's notice. This was not the best kind of an arrangement for the success of the theater and in view of the fact that in all probability the lesses would be compelled to vacate at the opening of a season's business they obtained from the Central Realty Co. a new lease running to March, 1896, but which provides for its own termination the 1st of next May. Under this arrangement Messrs. Havilin and Hagan may not be compelled to close before the end of a season, and under the terms of the lease they have the first choice, at the same price, over all comers in procuring a lease of the new theater to be embodied in the Colonade Building. The tenancy of all the other cocupants on the Kaufman property may be terminated at will, and possession of the lold Pope's Theater corner having been provided for in this way, it became feasible for Messrs, McCormack, Kilgen & Rule to get terminated at will, and possession of the old Pope's Theater corner having been provided for finds an aiready been subscribed for by the following named parties: Messrs, J. Cliff Richardson, Henry J. Meyer, Marle Patterson, H. R. Whitmore, James W. Buel, Henry Reder, Dr. J. Lawrence, H. L. Fox, W. W. and H. H. Culver, S. F. McCormack, Kilgen & Rule, where all the steps taken so far to perfect the plans wore unanimously approved.

The interested parties consider that they have a very cheap lease, and Messrs McCormack, Kilgen & Rule say that in no event will it be surrendered. Compared with the Erskine property, fronting 50 feet on Kighth street by a depth of 127%, on the northeast corner of Olive, only a little more than half as much again is to be paid for the whole Kaufman half block. The Erskine corner was leased a few days since for infly-nine years at $20,000 at per annum, and that property, counting both street kyonts, has a total frontage of only 177%. The Kaufman half-block has the same frontage on Olive street that the Erskine property has, and in addition to that it faces 225 test on Mint street and 127% on Locuist, giving a total street frontage of 435 feet—that is 303% feet more street front at $20,000 a year. In the opinion of many real estate agents the Ninth street property, opposite the Custom House, and the recently projected improvements for Locuist freet, not more valuable than that on Eighth street, independent of the Colonnade building enterprise will make that one of the best built and most business-like thorotist/hares in the circular projected improvements for Locuist street, independent of the Colonnade building enterprise will make that one of the best built and most business-like thorotist/hares in the circular street, independent of the Colonnade building enterprise will make that one of the best built and most business-like thorotist/hares in the circular street, independent of the Colonnade building enterprise will make that one of the best built and most business-like thorotist/hares in the circular street, independent of the Colonnade building enterprise will make that one of the best built and most business-like thorotist/hares in the circular street, independent of the colonnade building enterprise will make that one of the north was a solice of Page avenue by a depth northwardly 1, 300. JOCKETS WHO BET FURNISH THE THEME OF DISCUSSION.

The Tendency Among the Members Is to Bule Them Off-Judge Carter's Views-A Novel Base Ball Suggestion-Walter Camp on Yale's Eleven-Princeton's Troubles-Sporting News.

The annual meeting of the Western Turf Congress, which was inaugurated at the St. Louis Jockey Club's office yesterday, went into of yesterday afternoon's session was occupied considering the question of whether or not it would be advisable to increase the scale of weights. After listening to both sides of the question the congress finally concluded to con tinue the present scale, which was considered satisfactory. Some unimportant change were also made in the betting rules. Among the other business transacted was the holding in suspense for another year the on He rule-1. e., races may be prepared fo horses over 2 years old at any distance less than a mile. The rule insisting on a colt be ing given a name when first entered in a race inded, but a name must be conferred when the animal makes its first start. Changes of name after a first start will not be permitted. The clubs of the Congress will take cognizance only of forfeits incurred by any member of the same. The name o every member of a confederacy or company of owners must be declared or a fine of $50 will be imposed for each failure to give the names. The Congress consumed very little time in deciding that jockeys set down for conduct at the post on horses not owned by their employer will suffer the punishment as applying to outside horses, but their em ployers may give them mounts. For offenses on employers' horses the boy will be debarred from riding.

This morning's session was devoted prin cipally to the question of whether or not it would be advisable to prevent jockeys from betting, and if so, how to enforce a rule that will stop them, directly and indirectly Frank Shaw, as was announced in yesterday's POST-DISPATCH, is not in favor of endeavor ing to prevent the jockeys from betting. [Mr. Shaw, while in favor of the idea, does not be Heve that it is possible to carry it out. His views, however, are not shared by Mr. Rolla Wells, who, while he has never announced definitely just how he stands in regard to the matter, is suspected of leaning to just the contrary of what Shaw thinks. John J. Carter, presiding judge at East St. Louis, who is one of the best known turf authorities in America, says that it will necessitate a strict watch being kept on the jockeys constantly, to prevent them from betting, and when they are nabbed in the act, strict measures should be taken to punish them, as a warning to the rest. For a while the boys will insist on disregarding the rule, but after one or two of the offenders have been ruled off, the rest will realize that it is an extremely risky proceeding to disobey rules that are sure to be enforced. A rule, according to Judge Carter, should be provided that will punish severely any bettor caught giving a jockey before a race in which he has a mount, a ticket on the horse he is to ride, calling for a swell sum providing he wins calling for a swell sum, providing he wins. This results in many jockeys resorting to the most desperate tricks. They want to win by all means, and start out to cook the race on their own responsibility. After picking out the animal or animals which out the animal or animals which they think are impossible to defeat squarely, the jockey or jockeys that are down to ride the horse or horses leared are told that it will be more in their pockets if so and so wins than if they are successful themselves, and the result a is crooked race in nine cases out of ten follows. Jockeys should also be prohibited from betting on one horse and riding another," continued Judge Carter. "Suppose, for instance, a boy has a large bet on a long shot and another horse's chances appear extremely bright and an opportunity offers itself for him to foul the animal that looks as if he will win, and thereby result in a loss to him of considsiderable money, without being detected. What is the result? Why, of course, a great What is the result? Why, of course, a great many of the boys, who are far from being angels, will grasp the opportunity to a certainty. Jockeys are also tempted strongly when they bet heavily on one horse and ride another to pull their own mount, provided that by so doing they will win their money."

THAT STATEN ISLAND TRACK.

The proposed new track at Staten Island is likely to remain a scheme on paper unless the chief financial specalator in the affair. Erastus Wiman, changes his policy. Mr. Wiman, with the sagacity usually displayed by him, has been trying to sell nothing for something, but the turfmen interested in the details of Mr. Wiman's plan could not see any money basis in it for them. It was a case where the ingenuous Wiman would win in any event, while the stockholders would receive what Mr. David B. Hill calls incidental protection. For this reason there are no stockholders, and there will not be any until the financial plan is revised, says a Gottam authority. Staten Island is just the place, however, for a race track on a grand scale, and the building of one there is only a question of time.

DAILY AND SUNDAY, 15 CENTS A WEEK.

Judge Malone of the Hawthorne track on Monday sold to Turman Macallister of Cla-cinnati the chestnut filly Readina, 3, by Mr. Pickwick-Messalina, for $3,500. The operation of firing the $30,000 colt G. W. Johnson has been performed with success, and there now seems to be no doubt that he will be able to stand training next season.

It is amusing to see Count Michael Daly and other trainers rush into the ring at Gutten-berg and tell their friend Gleason what the birds in the paddock are chirping, says a New York authority. W. Wheeler has sold the 3-year-old colt, Future, by King Alfonso out of sequence, to J. Bracken for $2,400. Future is one of the most consistent long-distance handicap horses across the river.

Foxhall Keene will sail for England in a few weeks. He intends spending the winter there, and may come back in the spring with a few English thoroughbreds to add to his already formidable string.

Trainer Matt Allen will be temporarily out of a job when Yorkville Belle. Don Alonzo, Runyon and other cracks are sold next week. He may train for Forbes of Boston, who is getting a string together.

Five uninteresting races formed the card at Hawthorne yesterday. The fields were small and favorites and second-picks picked up the coin. The winners were Jay Jay, Emma, Engarita, Shoshone and Gray Goose.

Emma, Engarita, Shoshone and Gray Goose. It is reported that a coterie of Board of Control adherents are trying to place a boycott on Jockey Stevenson because he left the employ of Walcott & Campbell to ride at Guttenberg. Stevenson is a competent boy, and can ride around the so-called jockeys at Guttenberg.

Foxhall Keene's stable and the one owned by W. J. Spiers are quartered for the winter at Sheephead Bay. Those that will take winter quarters at Gravesend include the Empire Stable, the Barricks, Father Bill Daly, Green Morris C. Cornebison and McBride. Rogers has sent his lot to Morris Park, where Knap McCarthy will also winter.

'Tim Murphy, the once fast sprinter, in fact the horse that thought nothing of turning the norse that thought nothing of turning three-quarters of a mile in 1:14, met inglorious defeat at East St. Louis Monday. It was a seven-furlong race and Magee could do no better than third in 1:30½. Tim is a faithful old roan horse, but too much tight lacing of girths and the deadly 'dope' have nearly rendered him a broken-hearted racer," says a Chicago turf authority.

A correspondent in this week's issue of the Sporting Life suggests a new base ball diaond. In speaking of the suggestion, the Life says: "The proposed new diamond is a startling innovation, but the more it is studied the more favorably it impresses. The new diamond provides for a home base and four additional bases instead of three as now. This extra base would not, however, necessitate an additional infielder unless it is desired to make the same ten men and ten innings, which increase has been repeatedly suggested for many years by some excellent critics. Under the new system four men could attend ito the infield as now—the first basemen and second basemen taking care of their usual bases, the shortstop becoming third baseman, while the present third baseman would be fourth baseman. The new base lines would throw first and fourth bases about ten feet further out than the present base lines, thus making a very much larger area for fair balls, thereby increasing the batting very considerably, besides reducing the number of foul balls.

"The distances from second base to third." new diamond provides for a home base and "The distances from second base to third base and from third base to fourth base are each 70 feet. This would give the base-runners better chance of stealing bases. It is true, the catcher's throwing distance is decreased from about 128 feet to 120 or 122 feet, and he is in a better position to throw—the ball going diagonally across the diamond and there being no obstacle such as pitcher or umpire in the way. But the advantage would be still somewhat in favor of the runner, which is better than with the present dimensions, under which the beil, if properly handled, must inevitably and invariably beat the fleetest runner if the pitcher does not give him too much start. 'The distances from second base to third est runner if the pitcher does not give him too much start.

"Increased base-running would not, however, mean so many more runs as to make games seem tedious and scores look bad, because the distance from the plate to first base and from fourth base to the plate is still ninety feet and the entire circuit thirty feet more than the present circuit. Thus, while there would be more base-running on the short lines, the additional circuit distance, and the long distances between home and first, and fourth and home, would operate against excessive run-scoring."

PITTSBURG'S COLLEGE PITCHER. If Clarence Bayne, the crack pitcher of the University of Pennsylvania, plays ball professionally next season it will be with the Pittsburg club. Bayne is an forphan and was raised within the walls of Girard College. He neither drinks, smokes nor chews, and is said to be the best amateur pitcher in the country. He is at present studying dentistry, and desires to finish his studies before he leaves school. I began playing when I was 14 years of age, at that time pitching for a junior team amone." the college boys. I enjoy playing with the university team very much, so much, in fact, that I would consider it a great disappointment were I to start out as a professional and, finding myself not fast enough for that company, then for the balance of my school days be deprived of playing on the 'varsity team." According to the opinion of all the professional players who have seen the young twirler work, however, his fears are groundless. The Philadelphia and Boston players say he is by long odds the best amateur they know of and that he is fast enough for any company. The Pittsburg club made an excellent move when they "claimed" layne, and the prospects of his playing here next season are very good, says the Pittsburg Leader. Pittsburg club. He is a fellow member with him of the committee having in charse the arrangement for next season's international tournament and does not wish any rivalry to mar the important work and lastly, Mr. Gerauld thinks that Col. To this end immigration will be generally discouraged and the provisions of the President's proclamation of Sept. 1, imposing a quarantine of twenty days on all suspected immigrants, will be vigorously enforced. The transportation companies have been given to understand this policy of the department. Therefore in bringing immigrants to the United States they do so at their own risk, and thus subject their steamships to a possible detention of twenty days at United States ports. The department reserves the right to remove this restriction in speceial cases calling for such action. According to the official construction, all allens who come to this country for permanent residence are immigrants and will be treated as such regardless of whether they travel in cabin or steerage. The admission of these will be restricted as far as possible, but bona fide tourists or travelers simply visiting or passing through the country and allied citizens of the United States, whether native or naturalized, will be allowed to land without delay or hindrance of any kind. The prohibition of immigrants applies only to such as were not booked at the port of departure prior to the date of the President's proclamation. That the policy of the administration on this question is not altogether infexible, however, is shown by its recent action in the case of the steamship Richmond Hill, from Liverpool to New York.
